

Simposio

Public Administration and the EU Proposal for a Regulation of Artificial Intelligence

18 Septiembre

Universitat Oberta de Catalunya

19 Septiembre

Universitat de Barcelona
Facultad de Derecho

Saló de Gaus

9.30h Inauguración

10.00h Ponente invitado

Le nozze di Giustizia. Interactions between AI, Logic, Law, Language and Computation.
Joost J. Joosten.
Universitat de Barcelona

11.30h Transparency and AI

Transparency and AI. Attempting to catch a difficult horse.
Enrico Carloni.
Università degli Studi di Perugia

The European AI regulation: an attempt to tip the scales in favor of algorithmic transparency.
Clara Velasco.
Universitat Pompeu Fabra

13.00h Descanso

15.00h Better regulation, good administration and AI

The challenges of AI to regulators.
Nicoletta Rangone.
Università di Roma LUMSA

Red-flags systems against corruption and fraud.
Oscar Capdeferro.
Universitat de Barcelona

09.30h Humans, AI and Biases

Preventing biased results and discriminatory effects of AI use in Public Administration.
Agustí Cerrillo.
Universitat Oberta de Catalunya

Some considerations on the relationship between humans and artificial intelligence: the "human reserve" and human supervision (human in/on the loop).
Juli Ponce.
Universitat de Barcelona

Humans involved in automated decision making and how they influence the execution of legislation.
Marlies van Eck.
Radboud University

11.30h Descanso

12.00h EU regulation and administrative internal perspective

Data governance in the AI Act.
Anahí Casadesús.
Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

AI Act and human resources needs in public sector.
Ramon Galindo
Universitat de Barcelona

The European AI Act as a risk regulation tool.
Javier Miranzo.
Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha

14.00h Conclusiones, futuro libro y descanso