

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

Recent Trends in Administrative Justice A Comparative Perspective

Progetto finanziato nell'ambito dei fondi dell'Unione Europea – NextGenerationEU, componente M4C2, investimento 1.1, progetto PRIN2022 dal titolo "Il giudice nell'età della crisi. Adattamenti dei processi decisionali alle tensioni del sistema", codice CUP B53D23010280006

Sala Jacopo d'Ardizzone – Via C. Montanari, 9 – Verona
28 November 2025

9:30 Welcome address and Introducing Remarks

Paolo Duret, University of Verona

I session – Chair: Paolo Duret

10:00 The (Dis)Illusion of Legal Remedy for Automated Decisions: Insights from Hungary
Erzsébet Csatlós, University of Szeged

10:30 Special Litigation Rules on Prioritized Investments – In Action
Judit Siket, University of Szeged

Coffee break

11:30 Judicial Review of EU Composite Procedures - The Polish Perspective
Łucasz Prus, University of Wrocław

12:00 Judicial Remedies in the Absence of Procedural Law: Navigating Legal Certainty and Institutional Derogations in Romanian Administrative Justice
Mihaela Cărăușan, National University of Political Studies and Public Administration, Bucharest

Lunch break

II session – Chair: Giovanna Ligugnana

15:00 Administrative Appeal and its Exclusion: Implications for Judicial Review in Slovenia
Polonca Kovač, University of Ljubljana

15:30 Legal Protection Against Unlawful Administrative Decisions Before Administrative Authorities in Croatia
Dario Đerđa, University of Rijeka

16:00 The Current State of Extraordinary Appeal to the President of the Republic in Italy between Theory and Practice
Leonardo Parona, University of Roma Tre

16:30 Appeal against the Silent Settlement of a Case in Polish Administrative Proceedings
Anna de Ambrosis Vigna, University of Białystok

17.00 PhD Sub-session

17:30 Concluding Remarks
Giovanna Ligugnana, University of Verona

Segreteria scientifica:

Paolo Duret (paolo.duret@univr.it), Giovanna Ligugnana (giovanna.ligugnana@univr.it)

Segreteria organizzativa:

Vittorio Toffaletti (vittorio.toffaletti@univr.it)